

A Carriage Hill Estates Publication

Annual Meeting

The CHE HOA annual meeting is scheduled for Monday, November 3 beginning at 7:00pm at Northlands Neighborhoods, Inc located at 5340 Chouteau Trafficway. Notification letters with proxy ballots have been sent out.

We received two nominations through email. We reached out to both parties to make sure they had an interest in running and to have their name placed on the ballot. One nominee declined to run for the board and the other nominee did not respond to the email.

You must be a member/homeowner in good standing to cast a vote. Each household is limited to one vote.

We would like to see a full house on the 3rd, so please consider coming out and showing support for your neighborhood.

Y'all are pretty good at telling us when a neighbor's house isn't looking up to par. Let's turn that around, tell us about the ones who are doing a good job in keeping their area tidy. Let's try lifting one another up instead of tearing down.

What house in the neighborhood makes you happy when you see it? Why? Is it the landscaping, the decorations, the cleanness of the area? Let us know by emailing the board at chekchoa@gmail.com so we can showcase them in the newsletters.

Meet the HOA Board Members

Austin Grant

I have been a resident of Carriage Hill Estates for 11 years and have served on the HOA board for the same number of years. I am up for re-election.

Jason Daniels

I've lived in CHE for the past 10 years with my wife Stephanie and our four children. We have a two-year-old Bernadoodle named Charlie. I am currently serving as the Vice President on the HOA Board and assigned to the Architectural Review Committee. We belong to St. Andrew the Apostle Parish in Gladstone. My priorities and hobbies include faith, family, woodworking, hunting, and reading.

I would like to see the neighborhood improve through our homeowner's hard work and commitment to beauty and safety. As our original members choose to downsize or pass away, I'd like to see our neighborhood pitch in to help those in need and help assimilate new families into the neighborhood.

Shelley Guadagnano

I do the bookkeeping, banking, make sure yearly taxes are completed. I work with insurance companies for our yearly coverage. I also, file and release liens on accounts that are past due.

I have lived in Kansas City most of my life and attended Winnetonka high school. I am married and we have 2 boys. I retired after 35 years from a law office as an office manager/paralegal. I love to travel, read and play bocce with my cousins.

Kindle Pesek

I have lived in the neighborhood since 2011 and have proudly served on the board since 2021. During my time on the board, I have held the position of Secretary, keeping detailed meeting notes and minutes. In addition to my secretarial duties, I oversee groundskeeping and coordinate with our lawn care company to ensure the neighborhood is well-maintained. I also work closely with our pool management company to keep the pool operational, safe, and clean throughout the summer season.

Linda Heuszel

My husband, Chet, and I have lived in CHE for 18 years. We are both now retired and have three kids, six grandkids, and one great-granddaughter. I served previously on the board for 10 years and a lot of different jobs. This time I am back as a Member-at-Large. I am driving the neighborhood twice a month to make sure our HOA covenants and By-laws are being followed. We all want our neighborhood to look outstanding and maintain our property values. Everyone needs to take an interest in their property and neighborhood.

Theresa Faulkner

My husband, Matt, and I have been married for 39 years. We have two children and four grandchildren (and many grand fur-babies). We moved into CHE in 2020 from the Washington, D.C. area. I was born and raised in southcentral Kansas, so not a stranger to the Midwest. I am an active member of Liberty Church of the Nazarene. I enjoy spending time with family and friends, facilitating Bible studies, singing in the praise team, cooking, traveling and shooting at the range.

My position on the CHE HOA board is Member-at-Large. The main roles I carry out are email correspondence, producing the Neighbor-to-Neighbor newsletter, Architectural review committee, and wherever help is needed. I am up for re-election this term.

What would I like to see in CHE? A community that is knit together for the betterment of the neighborhood and the families living here. To be a community who knows and cares for their neighbors and willing to pitch-in and help those who need it. Carriage Hill Estates is a great neighborhood to be a part of, let's make it an amazing neighborhood to dwell together in!

Gift Ideas to help out our youth

The holiday season is approaching and it's time to start thinking about gift-giving. Here are a couple of fundraisers that not only benefit the youth in our community but are great gift ideas as well. Take a look and happy shopping!

Rada Kitchen Store is partnering with the youth at Liberty Church of the Nazarene. Follow the directions on the coupon to the left and you'll help out the youth as well as $5.00 off shipping.

Rada knives are amazing! My first Rada knives were ordered when my granddaughters homeschool co-op was raising money. I'm an absolute fan of them – they are sharp and cut so nicely. No issues carving the turkey or roast...it was like cutting through butter!

Order candles and support St. Gabriel the Archangel Catholic School! CORDA Candle fundraiser will be 3 days only, Saturday, October 25th through Monday, October 27th.
